- Update on on-going projects-
 - Sarah motioned with a 2nd from Cecily to approve of the January meeting minutes. Meeting minutes were approved as written.
- Member Business-
 - Mark opened the discussion related to Sexual Health instructional materials by acknowledging that there is a lot of material for the SHAC to review and asked what does the group need to feel good about the process. Many volunteered thoughts related to various programs under review. John Dumboski, representing the teacher review committee that provided the SHAC with an overview and evaluation of the programs under review shared his feedback about on the evaluation process. The SHAC considered the concern of how best to engage the community in opportunities to provide feedback on the recommendation process. After discussion a motion was made to schedule an additional meeting in April to allow my time for the SHAC to review the programs at their own schedule.
 - With a motion by Becky and a 2nd by Katrina the SHAC approved and adjusted the SHAC meeting schedule to include a meeting on April 12th 2023.
